

City of Yachats City Council National Volunteer Month Proclamation

WHEREAS, National Volunteer Month is a time to recognize and honor the many Yachadians who volunteer their time and talents to make Yachats a great place to live and visit and

WHEREAS, volunteers are essential to this community, helping to meet the needs of the elderly, the poor, the disabled, and providing wisdom and guidance to the City and City council and

Whereas, volunteerism promotes a sense of civic responsibility, empowers individuals, and builds social connections and relationships; and are a vital part of our democracy, participating in the political process and working to improve the lives of their fellow citizens; and

WHEREAS, the contributions of volunteers to our city are immeasurable and should be celebrated and recognized;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Craig Berdie, Mayor of the City of Yachats, do hereby proclaim April as National Volunteer Month in the City of Yachats.

I call upon all citizens to observe this month by continuing to volunteer their time, talents, and expertise to help others. There are many ways to get involved, and every little bit counts. You can volunteer with any of our many volunteer groups including, but not limited to, serving on a commission, working in the library, helping with Don's place, Trails, or just helping a neighbor in need.

Volunteerism is a way of giving back to our community and making a difference in the lives of others. It is a rewarding experience that benefits the volunteer and the community.

This is a month to honor those who serve and to contribute to Yachats and make National Volunteer Month a time of service and giving.

Craig Berdie

Mayor, City of Yachats
